Concurso Mundial de Paellas 2015 (World Paella Contest 2015)

Every year at the beginning of March and before the celebration of Fallas Holidays in Valencia, the "World Paella Contest" is held. For this event, the shipping industry gather to contest their culinary skills with Spain's national dish (also a regional Valencia dish), Paella. Every company cooks their own paella with the ingredients provided by the organizing committee and thereafter, enjoy the famous Valencia Paella with their colleagues and associates.

Almost 5,000 professionals from more than 300 companies in the shipping industry participated in the contest in Valencia on March 6, 2015 for the XXVI anniversary. The overwhelming response this year sets a record for the event history. With the 336 paellas cooked, it is definitely a major headache for the judges to select the winner of the year.

Our Spain office, Globelink Uniexco, certainly did not miss out the fun as well. They were one of the sponsors for this year's event, and they took a go at the cooking contest too! For this year, our honorable chefs are none other than

Mr. Joaquim Pueyo (Managing Director, Globelink Uniexco) and Mr. Francisco Ripoll (Branch Manager, Globelink Uniexco Valencia)!

It was an excellent event, allowing fellow colleagues to bond and enjoy the Spring weather while cooking Paella, and definitely a great chance to network with customers and associates as well. After the contest, the party continued with song and dance. With the combination of great company, nice weather and delicious food, there is no doubt that everyone had a relaxed and amazing time!
